

The FCC should not eliminate the existing safeguards that prevent further media consolidation. This action will be to the great detriment of citizens and consumers in the United States. Please, please, do not allow further consolidation of our public information resources.

Kind Regards,
Matthew Johnson